

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Finance Internship position available at PricewaterhouseCoopers. As a final year finance student at the Adventist University of Central Africa, I have developed a strong foundation in financial analysis, budgeting, and accounting. I am confident that my academic background and personal drive make me a strong candidate for this position.

Throughout my academic career, I have demonstrated a commitment to academic excellence, and my grades reflect my dedication to my studies. Moreover, my involvement in various extracurricular activities has developed my leadership, teamwork, and problem-solving skills.

I am particularly interested in PricewaterhouseCoopers because of its reputation as a leading firm in the finance industry. The merger of Price Waterhouse and Coopers & Lybrand has created an industry powerhouse, and I would be honored to contribute to its continued success. I am excited about the opportunity to gain real-world experience and to work alongside experienced professionals in the finance industry.

In addition to my academic achievements, I have also completed several internships and gained valuable experience in various aspects of finance. I am confident that the skills I have acquired will enable me to make a positive impact at PricewaterhouseCoopers. My attention to detail, critical thinking, and strong analytical skills are just a few of the qualities that I believe make me an ideal candidate for the Finance Internship position.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss my qualifications with you in more detail.

Sincerely,

Muhimpudu Bayoboke Esther
